Notice Concerning the Impact of Typhoon Hagibis (Typhoon No. 19) on Assets Under Management

We would like to express our heartfelt condolences to all those affected by Typhoon Hagibis (Typhoon No. 19). Enex Infrastructure Investment Corporation (hereinafter “EII”) announces the impact of Typhoon Hagibis (Typhoon No. 19), which struck the Tokai and Kanto regions on October 12, 2019, on its management status as described below.

1. Takahagi Solar Power Plant (Hitachi, Ibaraki. Solar module output: 11,544.00 kW)

On October 13, at around 1:25 a.m. when the typhoon passed, the plant’s electric power line service was interrupted. Service was restored at around 2:30 p.m. the same day. Emergency inspection confirmed that there was no damage to power generation facilities.

2. Hokota Solar Power Plant (Hokota, Ibaraki. Solar module output: 21,541.00 kW)

It was confirmed that about 30 panels (about 8 kW) were damaged and there was some damage to the panel mounts and wire mesh fence. (Note)

There is no significant impact on the management status forecast of EII for the fiscal period ending November 30, 2019, announced in “Summary of Interim Financial Results for the Fiscal Period Ending November 30, 2019 (Infrastructure Fund)” dated July 12, 2019, due to the above.

In addition, no damage has occurred at any of EII’s other assets under management. EII will promptly restore the damage at Hokota Solar Power Plant and shall issue further notification should new damage that has a significant impact on the management status be found.

(Note) There are 81,288 panels at Hokota Solar Power Plant.
